

Terms and Conditions

By rendering a payment, whatever in full or partial, with your registration for course, practice session or trip via F.I.I. online portal or otherwise, you are entering into a business contract with the instructor/facility named in the registration form, not with F.I.I. Bear in mind that all F.I.I. Instructors/Facilities are independent business entities. Freediving Instructors International, LLC is an educational entity overseeing only the standard and quality of freediving training and supervision provided by F.I.I. Instructors/Facilities. That being said, please feel free to contact F.I.I. even in the business practices related matters you experience with your F.I.I. Instructor/Facility.

Refund and Cancellation

Student Reschedule or Cancellations

If you have paid your deposit, or paid your full course fee:

If you notify your instructor at least 14 days before the start date of the course you've enrolled in, the instructor will transfer your enrollment to a different course location or start date, on a space-available basis, for an administrative fee of 15% of the full tuition fee.

If you notify your instructor less than 14 days, but at least 7 days before the start date of the course you've enrolled in, F.I.I. Headquarters will transfer your enrollment to a different course location or start date, on a space-available basis, for an administrative fee of 25% of the full tuition fee.

If you notify your instructor less than 7 days, but more than 48 hours before the start date of the course you've enrolled in, the instructor will transfer your enrollment to a different course location or start date, on a space-available basis, for an administrative fee of 50% of the full tuition fee.

No refunds can be offered within 48 hours of your course commencing.

Please, be aware that all deposits and payments towards 'Boat fees', 'Private Training', 'Events' and 'Trips' are final.

Instructor Cancellations

F.I.I. Instructors make every reasonable effort to assure that courses are held on schedule and in full. We value your time and respect your schedule. We must, however, recognize that freediving is an activity which may be constrained by events or conditions which are unlikely, or beyond our control. These include, but are not limited to:

Inclement Weather: If, in the judgment of F.I.I. Instructor or the boat captain, weather conditions are unsafe for a course's scheduled open ocean freediving trips, trips maybe cancelled or postponed. Cancelled or postponed ocean diving sessions can be made up by students during a later course, on a space-available basis, at the student's convenience, at no additional charge beyond the boat fees ordinarily due for all ocean dive trips.

Insufficient Enrollment: The F.I.I. educational philosophy is built on foundations of safety, student peer support and instructor-student ratio. F.I.I. Instructors reserve the right to cancel or postpone courses if fewer than 3 students enroll. In the event of a cancellation due to insufficient enrollment your F.I.I. Instructor will transfer enrolled students to his/her next scheduled course convenient to the student, or, cancel enrollment and refund deposits and fees received.

By checking off Terms and Conditions box in the registration form I claim that I understand and agree with the Terms and Conditions/Refund and Cancellation stated above.
